Latin American Artists Featured at PV Gallery

An exhibit featuring the works of 22 Latin American artists is on display at the Palos Verdes Library Gallery, 2400 Via Campesina, Palos Verdes Estates.

Members of the Torrance Kiwanis Club observed the club's 40th anniversary at a gala party Friday evening at the Los Verdes Country Club. The party also marked the 50th anniversary of Kiwanis International.

Nearly 300 persons, including 28 past presidents of the local club, attended the festivities, according to Tom Wilkes, chairman for the event. Special guests included Bill Dunlap of Palos Verdes, the governor of the California-Nevada-Hawaii district, and Lt. Governor Mat Flynn.

Also present was Colonel Raul Rosal, Consul General of Guatemala in Los Angeles. He received an honorary membership in the club. The Torrance Kiwanis Club was chartered Sept. 17, 1925. James Leech, then manager of the Torrance branch of the Bank of America, was the first president. City Councilman H. Ted Olson currently is president of the club.
